Trooper Receives Recognition

On 06-01-04 The Lighthouse District, Connecticut Yankee Council of The Boy Scouts of America awarded Trooper William Logiodice the Shining Star Award for his continuing excellence in scouting service with Troop 471 in Guilford. This very esteemed award in scouting was presented to Trooper Logiodice during a dinner at the Tabor Lutheran Church in Branford.

The award recognizes community service performed as well as strong leadership skills displayed by its recipients. Trooper Logiodice received public acknowledgement for not only his leadership skills in scouting but also for contributing great time and effort in improving the community he serves. He was one of four such persons from this area receiving the award.
